

Media Coaching for Authors

Learn...

- How to take your book's message to the media effectively
 - To stretch and develop your on-camera personality
 - To work in various TV formats
 - How to maximize your media opportunity
 - How to lighten up and cultivate your own spontaneity
 - How to get your message across in the time allotted
 - How to bring a sense of humor into your interviews
 - The secrets of talk shows and how to be media savvy
 - Microphone and on-camera techniques that work
- * Paul can help you go from author to in-demand media personality. Coaching takes place in Hollywood or on location.

"The Art of Comedy:
Getting Serious about Being Funny"
by Paul Ryan
Published by Random House
Available now at Amazon.com
and bookstores worldwide

Contact: 818-783-7940, paul@paulryanproductions.com

About Hollywood Media Coach Paul Ryan

Paul's credits include...

- Series co-host of "Mid-Morning L.A."
- Hollywood Correspondent for "Entertainment Tonight."
- Host/producer/owner of 175 episodes of "The World through Celebrities' Eyes" for The Travel Channel, and 500 episodes of "The Paul Ryan Show."

Paul Ryan...

- Has interviewed a "Who's Who of Hollywood" on television, including Jerry Seinfeld, Robin Williams, Anthony Hopkins, Brooke Shields, and Bette Midler.
- Is a Public Speaker around the world on "Hollywood, Health, and Humor."
- Has been teaching Media and On-Camera coaching in Hollywood for the past ten years, seven at CBS Studio Center.
- Is writer/producer/director of "Paul Ryan's Miss International Princess Pageant Variety Show," a pageant spoof series at www.youtube.com/paulryanproductions.
- Moderated The Las Vegas Comedy Festival.
- Hosted and co-produced "Hollywood Salutes June Allyson" with Debbie Reynolds, Liza Minnelli, and other stars.
- Has a new TV show called "Feel Good TV with Paul Ryan & Friends."

www.paulryanproductions.com